Ahmedabad: On World Heritage Day, GNLU in collaboration with Archeological Survey of India (ASI) organised a one-day workshop on 'Heritage law' and an exhibition on 'Retrieved Antiquities of India from Abroad.' A brainchild of Dr Richa Sharma, convenor of Legal History Museum, the event was a laudable attempt at making people aware of the importance of preserving the cultural heritage of India. It also saw the presence of notable dignitaries like Rajendra Trivedi, minister of sports, culture and youth welfare of Gujarat; Dr DM Dimri, director of antiquities, Archeological Survey of India; and OP Dadeech from customs department. The event began with a welcome address delivered by Prof Dr Bimal Patel, GNLU, who talked about pride of place that Gujarat enjoys with two UNESCO World Heritage Sites – Champaner and Rani ki Vav, Patan- located in Gujarat. He emphasised on the importance of preserving heritage sites and dealing with the menace of smuggling of antiquities.
