

Certificate course on military laws at GNLU

A certificate course on 'Military Laws' is scheduled to be organised from March 14 to 19 at GNLU. The programme aims to provide thorough insight on contemporary and advanced issues of military laws. It also aims to acquaint participants with the process of law in defence forces. It will make them familiar with the court martial proceedings in detail by conducting moot courts. The participants will be shown previously recorded proceedings and petitions filed before the tribunal to give them practical experience.
