

City donates 170 units of blood

DNAHM88460 | 7/21/2015 | Author : dna correspondent | WC :136

---

The Legal Services Committee of the Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) in Gandhinagar, conducted a blood donation camp on the occasion of its 12th foundation day on the July 17. The blood donation camp was organised in collaboration with the Indian Red Cross Society, Ahmedabad Chapter. A total of 235 people registered for it and 170 units of blood were collected. Similarly, a blood donation camp was organised by a city-based private tuition classes on July 19. 'Sagar Group Tutions' has been organising blood donation camps since the year 2010. They collected around 50 bottles of blood. Sagar Jani, organiser of the camp said, "I have been organising blood donation camps on my birthday for the last 5 years. Through this, I wish that my students and youngsters should donate blood which will benefit them too."