

GNLU WORKSHOP ON MARITIME LAW FOR DEFENCE PERSONNEL

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) has organised a 15-day training workshop for defence personnel from March 25. The workshop is designed to provide knowledge on contemporary and advanced issues, practices of the law of the sea and maritime laws. The first of its kind training programme will offer the first edition of the Maritime Legal Adviser Training to the senior officers of Indian Navy, Coast Guard and Maritime Boards from all parts of India. Former admirals, senior navy officers, experts, judges, practitioners, diplomats, scholars from India and abroad will conduct the training. Officers will also undertake a visit to the Reliance Petrochemical Complex in Jamnagar and Mundra Port as part of the training programme. — AM
