Overview:

In today's fast changing world India is showing very slow yet important sign of opening up to international adjudication as a means of international dispute settlement. Bimal N. Patel's scholarly work has come out at a very appropriate time.

The book is divided into four parts.

Part I: International Court of Justice Cases;

Part II: International Tribunal for Law of the Sea Case;

Part III: Permanent Court of Arbitration Cases;

Part IV-A: World Trade Organisation Cases where India is a complainant;

Part IV-B: World Trade Organisation Cases where India is a respondent.
