

Int'l conference ends at GNLU

A two-day international conference on the theme of 'Identity and the Politics of Security, Sovereignty and the Challenges of World Politics' concluded at Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) where national and international experts presented 98 papers in 9 technical sessions. Some of the topics covered by experts included India's internal and external security challenges, cyber security, Naxal issue and security issues in the northeastern states.