

IIM-A summer placements over

The summer placements for the class of PGP 2020 at IIM-A concluded on November 4. The placement process took place in three clusters on October 29, November 1 and 4. In the first cluster, 50 firms participated in the process where Boston Consulting Group recruited 20 students. Some other prominent names included Accenture Strategy, Deloitte USI, McKinsey & Company, Bank of America, Merrill Lynch, Barclays, etc. In the second cluster, 53 firms participated where 14 students opted for Amazon. Other summer recruiters included Coca-Cola, HUL, Johnson&Johnson, Nestle, Airtel, Reliance India, RPG, etc. On Sunday, over 40 firms participated in third cluster where Microsoft was the top recruiter with 10 offers. Other prominent names included American Express, Adani Group, OLX, Bajaj Auto, Glenmark, TVS Motors, etc.

GNLU organizes talk on IPC 377

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) organized a talk on the recent SC judgement on IPC Section 377 as part of monthly Faculty Seminar Series. Dr K Parameswaran, associate professor of law and dean of external and alumni relations, elaborated on different aspects of the judgement and its implications. He argued that it was not just the legal aspect but also biological, psychological, emotional and neurological dimension of knowledge that played a major role in the verdict.

MICANVAS to take place from November 17 to 19

The annual marketing festival of MICA will take place from November 17 to 19 where the central theme is consumer-connect with brands and companies. The festival will also witness annual business challenge and case study competition.

Three-day Kisan Swaraj Sammelan at Gujarat Vidyapith concludes

The national convention of farmers and agrarian sector practitioners, hosted by Gujarat Vidyapith from November 2 to 4 concluded with the declaration and resolution of 'A different world is possible' by participants. The participants also pledged to conserve traditional crop varieties.