

Open house at GNLU

The Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) on February 23 organized an open house with Anand Grover, senior advocate at Supreme Court of India on 'Constitutional Morality and the Supreme Court of India.' "India is currently at crossroads, this is a time when values imbibed in the Constitution are being challenged. These values include 'justice, liberty, fraternity' and the basic right of dignity," he said.