

Only 2 institutes of state make it to top 100

IIM-A Slips To 2nd Position

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ahmedabad: While Gujarat may be hailed as a fast-growing state industrially, it appears to have miserably failed at provi-ced on Monday, only two institutions – Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar (IIT-GN) and Anand Agriculture University (AAU) – made it to the top 100 institutes (overall) in the country. In the overall rankings, IIT-GN has been ranked 51, and has slipped 12 rungs from its rank, 39, in 2018. Similarly, AAU was which was ranked 96, also slipped 13 positions against rank 83, last year.

The rankings are decided based on five parameters – teaching and learning resources, research and professional practice, graduation outcomes, outreach and inclusivity and perception. A blow also came to the famed premiere institution in the city – Indian Institute of Ma-

BEST IN STATE

Source: Union Ministry of Human Resource & Development

Category	Institute Name	Top Ranked
Overall	IIT-GN	51
	Anand Agriculture University, Anand	96
University	Anand Agriculture University, Anand	67
Engineering	Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar	24
College	P D Patel Institute of Applied Sciences, Changa	26
Management	Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad	2
Pharmacy	NIPER, Ahmedabad	9
Law	GNLU, Gandhinagar	9

NIRF RANKINGS

ding the environment for high-ranking institutions. As the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) rankings for educational institutions and varsities, under the Union ministry of human resource development (HRD), was announ-agement, Ahmedabad (IIM-A) – which slipped to the second position in the ranking of top 100 management institutions across the country. IIM-A had secured the top position among management institutes in India for two consecutive years i.e. in 2017 and 2018. Gujarat's largest state university – Gujarat University – which was ranked at 112 this year in the overall rankings, also slipped by one position against rank 111 last year.