

GNLU students get highest number of pre-graduation offers

A total of 48 students of Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) have been placed in jobs before their completion of their flagship integrated five-year course, mentioned the university officials on Thursday. Two of the students have received three international offers including one from Linklaters, considered to be one of the top global law firms. The average annual package is Rs 15 lakh per annum. The offers include pre-placement offers (PPOs), Day Zero and Day One offers for the batch graduating in May 2020. Dr Nidhi Buch, placement coordinator at GNLU, said that the number of pre-graduation offers for the year 2018 and 2017 were 36 and 35 respectively.
