

GUJARAT NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY GANDHINAGAR

Course: Internal Security and Police Administration
Semester- IX (Batch: 2018-23)

End Semester Examination: November 2022

Date: 12th Nov, 2022

Duration: 3 hours

Max. Marks: 50

Instructions:

- Read the questions properly and write the answers in the given answer book.
- Do not write anything on the question paper.
- The respective marks for each question are indicated in-line.
- Indicate correct question numbers in front of the answer.
- No questions or clarification can be sought during the exam period, answer as it is, giving reason, if any.
- Bare Act is not allowed.

Part A

Marks

(Attempt any three of the following questions)

- |     |  |      |
|-----|--|------|
| Q.1 | Discuss in detail the major initiatives taken by Government of India in the area of coastal security in pursuance of the report of Group of Ministers (GoM) which was set up by the Cabinet Committee on Security (CCS) in furtherance of the Kargil Review Committee Report.  | (10) |
| Q.2 | Discuss the major recommendations of the National Police Commission and Padmanabhaiah Committee on Police Reforms. Discuss the current state of affairs for Police reforms in India.   | (10) |
| Q.3 | What are the major initiatives taken by the government of India in order to strengthen the land border control mechanism? Discuss the role of Central Armed Police forces in the protection of land borders of India.  | (10) |
| Q.4 | India has faced frequent and numerous challenges for its internal security in various forms and intensity. The threat perception has been controlled due to advancement in the security level ensured by the states. However, still it remains a serious cause of concern to the Indian states. In view of this statement, critically analyse the contemporary internal security challenges for India and prospective solutions to such challenges. | (10) |

Part B

(Attempt any one of the following questions)

- |     |   |      |
|-----|---|------|
| Q.5 | Under the changing concept of national security, the compound word "national security" is much larger than the physical security of a nation in such a way it covers the entire concept of national governance towards human well-being. Explain. | (10) |
| Q.6 | What do you understand by the term "elements of national security"?   | (10) |
| Q.7 | Explain the terrains on which national security has to be governed in the evolved and evolving scenario by national governments for maximising human well-being.  | (10) |

Part C(Attempt any one of the following questions)

- Q.8 Police administration involves setting agency policy and making operational decisions that best achieve the aforementioned goals without violating the law or the public trust. This includes knowing the law, adopting lawful and ethical departmental policies, enforcing those policies, and setting a clear professional example for subordinates to follow. From a human resources perspective, police administration involves making ethical and lawful decisions relating to the hiring, management, retention, discipline, and termination of law enforcement personnel. All of this requires accountability, both internal and external. In view of this, discuss the recommendations of National Police Commission on Police Reform along with the directions of Hon'ble Supreme court in Prakash Singh vs Union of India (2006) 8 SCC 1 (10)
- Q.9 Answer any two of the following questions. (5x2=10)
- a) Maintaining Law and Order is a tedious task. Comment on the statement.
  - b) Effective management of police station is possible through modernization – Argue
  - c) Victim Compensation Scheme in India

*****